You will explore the Bent Pyramid and the Red Pyramid, which were constructed during the reign of Pharaoh Sneferu (2613-2589 BC), father of Khufu of the Old Kingdom. The shape of the Bent Pyramid is unique; it represents a transitional pyramid form believed to have been the result of an engineering crisis encountered during its construction. The Red Pyramid is the world's first true smooth-sided pyramid.

After a delicious lunch experiencing this area's ethnic cuisine, you're off again to Saqqara, the vast, ancient burial ground, which served as the necropolis for the Ancient Egyptian capital, Memphis. Your guide will provide a brief history of the famous Step Pyramid of Djoser and you will have free time to explore the area. Your final stop is Memphis, the ancient capital of Egypt. Aswan - Unfinished Obelisk & Philae Temple (Lunch)

Head to the Unfinished Obelisk, which was ordered by the longest-reigning female pharaoh, Hatshepsut, ruling the scene for over 22 years. The Obelisk was carved straight out of bedrock but it was quickly abandoned when large latent cracks were discovered on either side. This abandoned monument gives great insight into the stone-cutting techniques and tools used by the skilled ancient Egyptian workers.

Your next stop will be at the fascinating Temple of Philae, moved to the Island of Agilkia after the waters of Lake Nasser flooded its original location. Dedicated to the greatly-revered goddess Isis, the Temple attracted thousands of pilgrims yearly during ancient times. Now encircled by crystal blue waters and adorned with lush foliage, the Temple will draw you in to discover the secrets of a bygone era. Lunch served at Movenpick Aswan Hotel. (This service is on a private basis.)

Day 6: Kom Ombo & Edfu Temples

Thursday Mar 10, 2022

DAILY SUMMARY

- Tour: Kom Ombo
- Tour: Edfu
- Accommodation: Hotel Al Moudira - Luxury Suite
- Meals: B, L

Kom Ombo

Visit the unique Temple of Kom Ombo. As you walk through the temple complex, take notice of the courts, halls, sanctuaries, and rooms which are duplicated for two sets of gods. The southern half of the temple was dedicated to the crocodile god Sobek, god of fertility and creator of the world. Meanwhile, the northern part of the temple was dedicated to the falcon god Haroeris, also known as Horus the Elder. A few of the three hundred crocodile mummies discovered in the vicinity are displayed in The Crocodile Museum. Make sure to visit the strange instruments resembling surgical tools, located in the complex's southeast corner! (This service is on a private basis.)

Edfu

The city of Edfu houses the Ptolemaic Temple of Horus, built over a period of two thousand years. The inner walls of the building tell the mysterious story of Horus coming into existence. Horus was born upon his father's death, Osiris, the god of the underworld - killed by his brother, Seth. The much-beloved goddess Isis brought Horus into life from a piece of Osiris' flesh. Horus later battled Seth and won, but lost an eye in the process. Hence, the 'eye of Horus' has important religious symbolism in ancient Egyptian mythology.

The Temple of Edfu was abandoned as a religious monument following Theodosius I's edict, banning non-Christian worship within the Roman Empire. Many of the temple's carved reliefs were destroyed in the process. The blackened ceiling of the hypostyle hall, visible today, is believed to be the result of arson intended to destroy religious imagery considered pagan. Lunch at Mudhouse. (This service is on a private basis.)
