Transfer to Stari Grad with Cruising around Pakleni Islands

Meeting Point

Hotel lobby

This morning meet your driver and transfer shortly to the port where your boat awaits. Hop on-board and enjoy a private motorboat cruise to Hvar Island (8 h). On the way, after app 1 h, visit Pakleni, a chain of eleven playful islets watching over the Hvar port. This breath-taking archipelago with intact nature and sapphire waters is ideal for swimming and sunbathing. Don't miss out on a delicious local meal ask your skipper for recommendations as there are fine little restaurants scattered around the islands. Then explore Hvar, the sunniest place in Europe. This lovely town on the namesake island boasts Mediterranean lushness, historic centre and laid-back island vibe. Later today cruise to your hotel Maslina Resort in the quiet Maslinica bay by Stari Grad, on the other side of the island. Overnight in Stari Grad.

Hvar Hiking Tour

Image credits: Aleksandra Krasinska on Unsplash

Meet your instructor for a private hiking trip along the picture-perfect coast of Hvar (app 3 4 h). The 11-km long trail takes you through pine forest, secluded bays and olive groves to the charming seaside village of Milna. From there head uphill to Malo Grablje village. Deserted by its residents in the 1960s in favor of Milna, today it's a quirky open-air museum of a world gone by. Enjoy a traditional lunch in a local tavern and a touch of the past before transferring back to Stari Grad. Overnight in Stari Grad.

Transfer to Dubrovnik with Touring of Korcula enroute

Image credits: Hiltthart Pedersen on Unsplash

Meeting Point

Hotel lobby

Meet your driver for a private transfer to Hvar town, where you will embark public catamaran to Korcula (app 1h 15min). Upon arrival to Korcula, meet your driver and local guide for a private walking tour of Korcula town (1,5 h).

Did you know that Korcula is known as the hometown of Marko Polo the famous world traveler? This was allegedly the origin of his Silk Road. With more than 2000 years of history, the former Greek colony of the “Black Korcula” is a living monument with captivating island ambiance and rich cultural heritage. After some time at leisure you will continue with your driver to the mainland, taking a short ferry to the village of Orebic on Peljesac Peninsula, one of the best wine-growing regions in Croatia. The rugged terrain and rocky coastline create a dramatic backdrop to the cultivation of centuries-old vines in the “Croatian Napa Valley”.

Visit the modern state-of-the-art winery of Korta Katarina and feast your taste buds on private wine tasting of their award winning Plavac Mali, Posip and Rose wines.

Later today, you will discover a quaint bay famous for the original European delicacy succulent oysters! Enjoy a private oyster farm tour with a local farmer who will take you for a boat ride around the bay. Learn how the oysters are grown and taste them fresh from the sea! Enjoy a glass of wine or two as you drift around and watch the local fishermen ply their trade. After this delicious stop you will continue your ride to Dubrovnik and your hotel boutique Villa Dubrovnik. Overnight in Dubrovnik.

Meeting Point

Hotel lobby

Meet your guide in the lobby for a private walking tour of Dubrovnik (4 h). Famed for its sheer beauty, glorious history of a one-time republic and majestic ramparts, Dubrovnik righteously bears the title of the “Pearl of the Adriatic”. Admire famous landmarks that make Dubrovnik an open-air museum and a UNESCO site. Quaint Franciscan monastery hides Europe’s oldest pharmacy; Rector’s Palace honours the mighty dukes of Dubrovnik and the baroque Church of St Blaise celebrates the town’s patron-saint. No visit to Dubrovnik would be complete without a walk around the city walls, one of the best-preserved ramparts in the Mediterranean. The uninterrupted flow of walls, almost 2 km in length, offers a glance of the old town from a completely different angle and spectacular views of the shimmering Adriatic. Overnight in Dubrovnik.

Mljet Island by Private Boat

Meeting Point

Hotel lobby

This morning, your driver will take you for a short transfer to port, where you will meet your skipper for a private motorboat cruise to beautiful Mljet island national park (8 h). A Greek settlement of Melita (honey) got its “sweet” name after the bees that lived in the vast forests of the island when the ancient Greeks first discovered it. Mljet is believed to be the paradise island of Ogygia from the famous epic poem ‘Odyssey’. True or not, the legend celebrates the luxurious beauty of Mljet, which is today yours to discover in a fun private kayaking tour (2 h). Later today cruise back to Dubrovnik (2 h) and transfer back shortly to your hotel. Overnight in Dubrovnik.
